The Duke of Edinburgh's Award is a voluntary, non-competitive programme of practical, cultural and adventurous activities, designed to support the personal and social development of young people. It offers an individual challenge and encourages young people to undertake exciting, constructive, challenging and enjoyable things in their free time. The Award is widely recognised by educationalists and employers. Some of the benefits to young people include developing or discovering:

- A sense of achievement and enjoyment
- New skills and interests
- Self-confidence and self-reliance
- Leadership skills and abilities
- Exciting opportunities
- Experience of teamwork and decision making

We operate a selection process for the Silver Award and this is done in consultation with senior members of the College teams. Administrative support is provided by Mrs White, based in Student Services, who is usually the first point of contact for parents on matters concerning the Award. For more information on the Duke of Edinburgh Award please visit www.dofe.org

It will take a couple of weeks for applications to be reviewed – you will be notified by email once decisions are made – this will be after half term. The Award is a national charity and whilst receiving some funding from government and commercial sources, participants support the charity through the purchase of a Welcome Pack. The cost of the Award is £100.00 and this will only be due on acceptance onto the Award via Parentpay and is non-refundable. This fee includes the enrolment and the welcome pack, any training required and the cost of the training and assessed expeditions. Please note that it is not possible to hire camping/expedition equipment from school.
